186 668 The Russian occupation receives no popular support from the masses. Of racial Lithuanians, only a few hardened communists and several thousand released criminals turned collaborators.

There is a definite trend to exclude even Lithuanian communists. In all of the periodic purges, it is the Lithuanian communists who suffer disgrace, expulsion and exile, while Russian embezzlers retain their posts. An "Anti-Cominform" morale is pronounced among the Lithuanian members of the LKP/b. Party and non-Party Lithuanians are still found in the less important "high offices." However, not a single Lithuanian holds an administrative post in any office connected with the military effort. This trend is pronounced even in the distribution of "ministerial" titles.

655 All communications—railroads, waterways, ports, post offices, telegraph, radio, telephone, aviation and highways—are under a centralized "All-Union" control: there are no "ministries" for any communications. A few Lithuanians are still encountered among the MVD railroad guard personnel but their number constantly dwindles.

● 486 Travel inside Lithuania to a distance of 200 km. is not obstructed, with the exception of the "prohibited zones" along the Polish frontier and the seacoast, where special permits from the MVD are required. Otherwise, traveling permits are issued by employing offices. Of course, every traveler must submit to numerous checkings of the papers by armed patrols.

There is no frontier with East Prussia and Latvia, and the same general travel rules apply to journeys to Latvia and East Prussia. Nevertheless, it is deemed safer to procure a "komandirovka" (dispatch orders) even if the destination be less than 200 km.—a "detour" to Siberia must never be overlooked. The Latvian frontier is crossed mostly for black marketing. It is possible to go to Byelorussia and into the interior of Russia with a permit issued by a local MVD or Executive Committee. "Komandirovka" is required for travel by air.

[191] Transportation tickets, birth, death and other records are printed in Russian and "local" languages. Nevertheless, it is not a rare phenomenon to hear in response to an inquiry in Lithuanian: "Neponimayu etovo sobachevo yazika" (I do not understand this canine language).

Mobilization and Demobilization

727 Of the so-called "Lithuanian Units," only one survives—the 16th Infantry Division stationed in Vilnius. The enlisted and non-commissioned officers personnel is roughly 80% Lithuanian, but the officer cadres are predominantly Russian on all levels. Orders are given in Russian. Colonel Motieka is the Divisional Commander, and political "General" Macijauskas is Deputy Commanding Officer. All other mobilized Lithu-
701 anians are dispersed throughout Russian units.

During the war, men of the classes of (birth) 1895 through 1926 were drafted. After the cessation of hostilities in Germany, a few men were demobilized, others were assigned to various Labor Battalions and moved to Russia. Those serving in MVD units were retained in the service. Men born prior to 1923 were demobilized from strictly military units of the Soviet Army.
